THANK YOU TO:

Alysia Georgiades and Macee Miller our D1 students who helped to make props, the sets and have worked with the children during performance club.

Mr. Mastoridis and Mr. Miles for writing all of the amazing songs

The Performance Committee for all of their work on organising rehearsal timetables, costumes and props.

Mr. Slane, Mr. Cusack and Miss Tye for their guest appearance as Oompa Lumpas.

FINAL SONG

You're so lucky, Charlie Bucket, you've just won the lottery
For that single golden ticket, won the Wonka factory.

Sing, hooray for Charlie Bucket

Since he's won the final prize; (the others were so bad)!

Hip hip hooray, he's so very lucky.

Willy Wonka loves an honest charming lad.

All the others were so greedy, wanted all the sweets and gum
But our hero, once so needy, showed good manners and has won.

Sing, hooray for Charlie Bucket...

3. There's a moral to this story, don't be rude; just be polite.

As the others grasped at glory, modest Charlie turned out right.

Sing, hooray for Charlie Bucket...

[finale] la-la-la la-la-la la-la-la la...

Sing, hooray for Charlie Bucket...

Voice 1: sing hoor -a- -a- -a- -ay

Voice 2: Sing hooray, hooray for Charlie Bucket

As he's won, the others were so bad

Hip hip hooray, - he's so very lucky.

Willy Wonka loves an honest charming lad.

[all:] SING HOORAY!
