From the Director's Chair

It's the Christmas awards ceremony and everybody is very excited to see their favourite Christmas 'stars' arrive. Which of these stars will win the 'Cracker', the prestigious award for 'Outstanding Contribution to Christmas'?

Will it be the faithful Christmas Cards, who keep everyone in touch with each other over the festive season? Perhaps it will be Santa and his jolly helpers, the reindeer or the elves that help him to deliver all those presents to 'good' boys and girls. Although it's not shown up in recent years, maybe Snow will walk away with the award. Surely the Christmas Trees, which bring a warm and happy glow to every house, are in with a chance. Could it be the lovely Teddy Bears who are trying to teach us their twist? And then there's the Christmas Dinner, which brings families together to feast on turkey and all the trimmings. Each star tells the audience why they've made an outstanding contribution to Christmas and the crowd eagerly waits to find out who will take home the 'Cracker'.

But then we hear of a late entry – another 'star', this time a real star by the name of Lehem (short for 'the Star of Bethlehem), who made a contribution to the very first Christmas many years ago. The star tells us a wondrous story of a baby, born in a stable. After hearing this tale everyone agrees there can only be one recipient of the award for 'Outstanding Contribution to Christmas'.

The award is given to its rightful winner, whose acceptance speech recognises all the other stars' contributions to making every Christmas so special.

It has been a great pleasure working with such a fabulous group of children who perform with so much enthusiasm and confidence. They have clearly enjoyed the experience of acting, dancing and singing together. Along with the children, the teachers have made this production a great success, showing dedication, commitment and great team spirit. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to them all!

Merry Christmas everyone!

Silent Night

Silent night, holy night

All is calm, all is bright

Round yon Virgin Mother and Child

Holy Infant so tender and mild

Sleep in heavenly peace

Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night, holly night

Shepherds quake at the sight

Glories stream from heaven afar

Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia,

Christ the Saviour is born

Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent night, holy night

All is calm, all is bright

Round yon Virgin Mother and Child

Holy Infant so tender and mild

Sleep in heavenly peace

Sleep in heavenly peace
